

2015
A year to celebrate

2015 was a record breaking year for Give A Grad A Go!

We've transitioned from being a small recruitment agency into a dynamic graduate recruitment specialist - that now employs 16 members of staff! We also moved into a cutting-edge new office to help us to sustain further growth.

In 2015 we placed over 400 candidates with 156 clients across the full spectrum of UK business. This includes jobs in:

- Account Management
- Data Analysis
- Business Support
- Design
- Development
- Digital Marketing
- Finance
- IT Support
- Project Management
- Business Development

84% of the candidates we have placed received a 2:1, a 1st or a Masters / PhD at university.

93% of the candidates we placed passed their initial three-month probation

The team's hardwork didn't go unnoticed in 2015 and we were lucky to be nominated in the:

...though it wasn't just a team-effort.

The Institute of Recruitment Professionals Awards

(Camilla Clarke - Consultant of the Year - Nomination)

Camilla joined us as a graduate 2 1/2 years ago. She has gone from being Resourcer to an Account Manager helping to start over 130 graduate careers and managing over 36 client accounts. We are delighted that her nomination means she is being recognised on a national scale.

Success Stories of 2015

We've had some exceptional graduates come through our doors in the last year - some of which have really stood out from the crowd, exceeding in their new roles and pushing the businesses they work for forward. We caught up with just three of these talented individuals.

Charlotte - Client Services Executive

"This job has supplied exactly what I was looking for and more, due to the variation offered and great brands that I work with. I am also now heavily involved within finding the best new talent to work alongside the company as we continue to grow at a rapid rate.

The level of variety that has been supplied would not be available in a larger company and has helped me to learn significantly more about business as well as the industry in which I work."

Nick - Systems Engineer

"I'm lucky as I get to work with some really cutting-edge products alongside some great Engineers. Everyday I am challenged technically - both in regards to new products and services, and any technical interests that I discover. I have now received recognition for my hard work and diverse skills, and was offered a promotion, leading to work with other Engineers, to foster a culture of intellectual curiosity. I'm excited about the growth in new business that my company has taken on board since I joined and the future prospects that growth holds."

Eli - Recruitment Consultant

"I was really keen to be in a work environment that evolved and tested me on a daily basis. I knew in this position, I would be exposed to a sector prominent throughout UK current affairs, policy and politics. The role has enabled me to trust in repeat business and, for me, I am confident that my reputation, (and that of the company), continues to make us the most approachable and successful agency in the sector. In 12 months' time I want to be in a position where I help in the running and management of my desk.

This will hopefully lead to my desk being the most successful (with-in my speciality) for the UK."
